RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FUTURE WORKSHOPS

- Expand Reach: Plan to include more teachers who can be trained in the yoga Asanas who are in constant touch with the students.
- Continuous Engagement & consistent Follow up: Follow-up workshops to reinforce learning and address new concerns. Plan periodic sessions to reinforce the knowledge shared and address ongoing concerns

CONCLUSION.

The period workshops have made a significant impact by raising awareness, educating, and empowering women and girls of MIJWAN WELFARE SOCIETY. Through education and community engagement, we have taken vital steps toward breaking taboos and promoting safe and dignified menstrual health practices. The workshops successfully educated and empowered young girls by equipping them with yoga asanas, a vital aspect of pain management in Periods.

The collaboration between Safe N Happy Periods and Mijwan Welfare Society has been instrumental in reaching this milestone, and we look forward to expanding this initiative further.
